At Saint Aloysius we believe in stewardship, sharing our gifts and talents with others. You who have attended Catholic school know that there are certain times during the course of the year when we ask the children, especially the older ones, to help. This may entail lifting or carrying objects. If you remember your own childhood, you will remember that these were fun times. If you will allow your child to participate in these supervised stewardship activities, please grant us your permission by signing below.

Recognizing that injury may occur in any activity and that such injury may be serious or even life threatening, we (I) hereby assume that risk in full for our child's participation in the activity and with full knowledge of the risks, in consideration for our (my) child's participation, we (I) and our (my) child agree and understand that we assume the risks inherent to the activity and with full knowledge of the risks, we (I) agree to release and hold harmless St. Aloysius Parish School, St. Aloysius Parish and the Archdiocese of Philadelphia and their employees and representatives from claims arising or related to our (my) child's participation.
